

African Burial Ground

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior
African Burial Ground
National Monument

Join us for National Park Week!

April 21-29, 2012

African Burial Ground will be offering several unique tours and programs in honor of National Park Week and you are invited. These ranger-guided events are free of charge and open to the public!

April 25, 2012, 1 PM: "Uncovering the Story of the African Burial Ground Through Archeology" is designed to help students learn more about archeology by examining replica artifacts from the African Burial Ground.

April 26, 2012, 1 PM: "African American Attractions in the National Park Service," is an illustrated program focusing on the lives, endeavors, and contributions of African descendants to the growth and development of this nation. Their stories are told at historical attractions which are supported by the African American Experience Fund (www.aaexperience.org).

April 27, 2012, 1 PM: "Reflections of Honor and Glory," a special tour of Commemorative Art at African Burial Ground.

April 28, 2012, 1 PM: "African Burial Ground Walking Tour": "A Broader View: Exploring the African Presence in Early New York". *Tour leaves from the steps of Federal Hall National Memorial at 26 Wall Street.

Every Day at 12:30 PM: "National Park Film Festival" The African Burial Ground will screen a site film from another National Park Service site!

Plan Your Visit

African Burial Ground National Monument is located on the first floor of 290 Broadway in Lower Manhattan, close to Foley Square and just north of City Hall.

The Visitor Center is open Tuesday through Saturday, 10 am to 4 pm and closed on all Federal holidays. The memorial is open 7 days a week, 9 am to 4 pm and closed on New Year's Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas Day.

Group size of tours are limited.

(212) 637-2019

www.nps.gov/afbg

Twitter: @AfBurialGrndNPS